

ST EDMUNDSBURY AND IPSWICH DIOCESE MOTHERS' UNION

INDEPENDENT EXAMINER'S REPORT TO THE TRUSTEES.

This report is on my examination of the accounts of the central administration of the St Edmundsbury and Ipswich Diocese Mothers' Union for the year ending 31st December 2020 as set out in pages 2 to 5, including the accounts of its Deaneries and Branches for the year ending 31st December 2020 as set out in page 4.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

As the charity's trustees you are responsible for the preparation of the accounts; you consider that the audit requirement of Section 43(2) of the Charities Act 1993 (the Act) does not apply. It is our responsibility to state, on the basis of procedures specified in the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners under section 43(7)(b) of the Act, whether particular matters have come to our attention.

Basis of examiner's statement

My examination was carried out in accordance with the General Directions given by the Charity Commissioners. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the Charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeking explanations from you as the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements

- to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 41 of the Act; and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with the accounting requirements of the Act.

have not been met; or to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
